Hoag Earns Level 3 Epilepsy Center Designation

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., June 14, 2016 --- Hoag was recently designated as a Level 3 Epilepsy Center by the National Association of Epilepsy Centers (NAEC) for 2016-2017.

This accreditation recognizes Hoag for having the professional expertise and facilities to provide the highest-level medical evaluation and treatment for patients with complex epilepsy.

“We are honored to be recognized nationally as a Level 3 Epilepsy Center,” said David Millett, M.D., Ph.D., director of Hoag Epilepsy Program. “Achieving this designation is a testament to our Neurosciences Institute team and the comprehensive approach they have when it comes to improving our patients’ overall quality of life.”

As a third-level center, Hoag provides comprehensive treatment through a patient-centered, integrated approach with a multidisciplinary team of specialists. Utilizing the best in evidence-based practice, state of the art technology and advanced research, Hoag is a leading resource for epilepsy patients and their caregivers in Southern California.
