Hoag Welcomes New Services to Irvine This Spring

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., June 12, 2017 --- This spring, Hoag welcomes three new services to its health care village in Irvine making it easier than ever for individuals and families to access Hoag's renowned services and programs.

"We have seen an incredible response from the community since opening Hoag Health Center Irvine last year," said Marcy Brown, vice president of Hoag Hospital Irvine and Ambulatory Services. "We continue to listen to the needs of the community and have brought in new services to our Irvine campus which further allow us to provide a patient experience that is highly personal, seamless and convenient."

Joining the renowned specialized services and providers currently available at Hoag Health Center Irvine are:

- Hoag Sleep Center Irvine featuring the same cutting-edge services for sleep disorders currently offered in Newport Beach at the Judy & Richard Voltmer Sleep Center, such as cognitive behavioral therapy, biofeedback and relaxation techniques to help people regain the rhythm of natural sleep.
- Breast & Ovarian Cancer Prevention Program addresses the needs of "pre-vivors," women who don't have breast or ovarian cancer but have an increased risk of developing the disease because they have a known genetic mutation. By drawing together a multidisciplinary team of experts in breast surgery and imaging, gynecology, meditation, fitness, nutrition, mental and sexual health, the new program is taking a more holistic approach by educating and empowering high risk women throughout the community.

Also new to Irvine, Hoag Rehabilitation Services has opened a second location, bringing the same high quality care and services from Newport Beach to the Irvine community. The new Hoag Rehabilitation Services is located in the 10-story tower adjacent to Hoag Hospital Irvine and across the street from Hoag Health Center Irvine, and includes a team of physical therapists, occupational therapists and speech language pathologists.

“Adding these services to Hoag’s health care village in Irvine enhances the provision of high quality health care services to the community where and when they need it,” said Brown.

ABOUT HOAG MEMORIAL HOSPITAL PRESBYTERIAN

Hoag is an approximately $1 billion nonprofit, regional health care delivery network in Orange County, California, that treats more than 29,000 inpatients and 305,000 outpatients annually. Hoag consists of two acute-care hospitals – Hoag Hospital Newport Beach, which opened in 1952, and Hoag Hospital Irvine, which opened in 2010 – in addition to seven health centers and ten urgent care centers. Hoag is a designated Magnet[®] hospital by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC). Hoag offers a comprehensive blend of health care services that includes five institutes providing specialized services in the following areas: cancer, heart and vascular, neurosciences, women’s health, and orthopedics through Hoag’s affiliate, Hoag Orthopedic Institute, which consists of an orthopedic hospital and two ambulatory surgical centers. In 2013, Hoag entered into an alliance with St. Joseph Health to further expand health care services in the Orange County community, known as St. Joseph Hoag Health. Hoag has been named one of the Best Regional Hospitals in the 2016 - 2017 U.S. News & World Report, and Becker’s Hospital Review named Hoag as one of the 2016 “100 Great Hospitals in America” – a designation Hoag has received four times. National Research Corporation has endorsed Hoag as Orange County’s most preferred hospital for the past 20 consecutive years and, for an unprecedented 21 years, residents of Orange County have chosen Hoag as one of the county’s best hospitals in a local newspaper survey.
